One Man's Opinion

By CARL BRIGGS

Slipping quietly into the news last week was the signing into law by Governor Reagan of a bill permitting the state parks and recreation people to keep freeway out of our park lands, the idea being that use of land for freeway purposes does not necessarily supercede its value and importance as a public park, a notion heretofore rejected by the highway people.

Initially, the law is expected to protect state parks in the vicinity of Emerald Bay from intrusion by a proposed west shore freeway, and it is hoped that other park lands in the state will enjoy similar future immunity to needless encroachment.

Highway improvements in the Tahoe area will probably now follow existing routes, a fortunate circumstance, and it might be supposed that with the long-standing controversy over route selection in the Emerald Bay area finally out of the way, we might now get on with the improvements.

Also slipping quietly past was my six-months anniversary as editor of this newspaper. Six months is considered sort of a milestone in the profession. Printers and journalists — in the old days they were synonymous, and on many small newspapers even today the publisher is also the editor and printer—are a nomadic lot, often afflicted with feet that are not only flat but itch as well, and an incurable curiosity about the country that lies just beyond the next hill.

They used to move their inky presses from town to town and if they managed to stay six months in one place they were considered to have reached unimpeachable tenure.

As I become more familiar with the great Truckee-Tahoe region and its problems and potential, as I become the friend of its fine people, and as I become more a member of the community and sense its exciting destiny, I'll reaffirm once again my own determination to fulfill responsibly the role of this newspaper in the scheme of things. That role is a complex one, to be sure, and while personal feelings may occasionally become a little bruised and bent (on both sides of my desk), the exploration and exposition of ideas, problems, and accomplishments is of the same inherent importance as the recording of news.

When I first assumed this position in late February, I wrote of the historical and necessary place of a newspaper within the community. It is a voice not only to report and record news, but is also a forum and a sounding board and a conscience.

To successfully live up to this rather abstract responsibility, a newspaper is dependent upon the support of the community. During my term of office this support has been positive and generous and sincere.

We are in the process of losing one reporter and gaining another, and this might be as good a time as any to say a word or two about all the Sun girls. The newspaper dodge has always been reputed to be a man's world, but don't you believe it. The women do all the work, like in primitive tribes, so the men can wear hats (bearing press cards) on the back of their heads and chase fire engines and stand around in saloons.

Anyway, Artis Clotfelter has left, after serving the paper in an outstanding manner in the difficult task of pioneer reporter on the north shore. She has been replaced by Florence Burge, a veteran newsgal who brings experience and her own inimitable personality with her.

When you dial our number you talk to Elsie Criswell, the voice of the Sun, the necessary steady hand that holds all the loose ends together and without whom we would flounder helplessly.

Bethel Van Tassel, Ellen Attardi, and Vi White are the mainstay columnists, and the Sun just wouldn't be the Sun without them. Thanks, girls, for all the good work, good cheer, and boundless loyalty.

September Groundbreaking For Sierra Bible Church

A beautiful new white church will begin rising east of Sierra Meadows on Highway 276 when the congregation of Truckee's Sierra Bible Church breaks ground sometime during September.

The sanctuary, with spire topped by a cross and bell, will have a full basement containing class rooms, will seat 125 persons, and will cost approximately $35,000, with most of the labor provided by church members.

The church, started in 1957 by Reverend Roy Rhodes, meets presently in the Joseph Gray house (built in 1863 and now part of the Englehart home) on School Street, and will continue holding services there until their new edifice is completed next spring.

The members of the building committee include Pastor J. Harold Howard, Norm Preston, Bill Holley, Skip Ferdinand, Don Marker and Jim Mandeville. They are currently involved in a search for a large bell for the tower, and solicit suggestions from anyone knowing the whereabouts of a bell.

Hewitt Clark of Incline is the architect.

Nevada County Tax Rate $2.48 Budget Is Near $6 Million

NEVADA CITY — The Board of Supervisors has adopted a final budget of $5,704,268 and a $2.48 tax rate, a figure 16 cents lower than the 1967-68 rate.

Decrease in the tax rate is due to increased county assessed valuation, and the total budge figure is about $250,000 higher than last year's, according to County Auditor-Controller John T. Trauner.

The budget includes pay increases for county employes and a boost in the county chamber of commerce budget to $37,300.

In other action yesterday, the board:

Agreed to meet with proponents of forest slash controls at an afternoon session Sept. 24.

Names Richard M. Eiselt as a planner for the Over-all Economic Development Plan group.

Set up a study group to consider compilation of a county special district map to aid the Local Agency Formation Commission and the County Public Works Department.

Jensen Sells Course Share

Reynold C. Johnson of Danville, Calif., has purchased Jackie Jensen's share of the nine-hole Ponderosa Golf Course.

Jensen, now a part-time coach with the University of Nevada baseball team and former major league outfielder with the Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees, said "I sold the stock (about one-third) after having it for six years. I felt like moving on to something else. It was a land investment."

Johnson and Alex Stewart are now the principal stockholders in the golf course, built in 1961.

Mexican Nationals Involved In Fatal Freeway Accident

One man was killed, one critically injured and two others were being held pending an investigation by the immigration authorities following a vehicle accident a quarter of a mile east of the Soda Springs interchange on Interstate 80 at 1:30 a.m. Thursday morning.

None of the four occupants of the ill-fated vehicle were identified immediately and there was no license plate on the car, none had a driver's license or other means of identification, according to the California Highway Patrol. None could speak English and protested that they did not know one another.

Through Joe Aguerra, who served as interpretor during a summary investigation, it was learned the four purchased the car in Mexico, drove through Arizona and were en route to Sacramento where they hoped to obtain farm work.

It was learned that at the point of the accident the lights went out on the car which plunged down a 75-foot embankment, landing beside old Highway 40.

Efforts were being made by the Truckee Tahoe Mortuary, which took charge of the body, to locate relatives of the dead man.

The crash marked the 75th injury accident and the seventh fatality in the Truckee-North Tahoe area during August.

Truckee Episcopal Services

St Nicholas Episcopal Church has announced the continuation of its Preaching Station in Truckee. Commencing September 8, services will be held in member's homes each Sunday morning at 9:15.

The service this Sunday will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack de Ryk, at which Rev. Jonathan Booth will celebrate the Holy Eucharist. All interested persons have been invited to attend.

Harvey Hopkins Finishes Training

Army Private Harvey G. Hopkins II, 20, whose parents live in Tahoe City, Calif., completed eight weeks of advanced infantry training Aug. 9 at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

He received specialized instruction in small unit tactics and in firing such weapons as the M-14 rifle, the M-60 machine gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

Hopkins entered the Army in April of this year and completed basic training at Ft. Lewis, Wash.

He is a 1966 graduate of Tahoe-Truckee High School.

Explosion Sinks Boat

A fire and explosion Saturday burned and sank a motorboat about one half mile off shore near Tahoe City. A Coast Guard spokesman at the Lake Tahoe substation identified the owner as Rod Minkler, of Chico.

Minkler was the only person aboard the boat when it caught fire. He reportedly jumped out and was picked up by another boat just as his craft exploded and sank.

Incumbent In Recreation Board Race

Mrs. Marigrey Fish has added her name to the list of candidates for a seat on the board of directors of the Truckee-Donner Recreation and Park District. She is an incumbent.

Two directors are running for re-election, Mrs. Fish and Harry Jamason. Jamason previously filed for the post, along with Charles Osburn, a member of the first board of directors, and Carson White, local realtor and president of Truckee-Donner Chamber of Commerce.

The district election will coincide with the general election in November.

Mass To Be Read Tomorrow For John Natalino Quilici

Mass will be read Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Assumption Catholic Church in Truckee by Father Robert Connelly for John Natalino (Nat) Quilici, 56, a well known former Truckee businessman, who died Saturday at 3 p.m. in the University of California Hospital in San Francisco after a lengthy illness.

Rosary will be held in the Truckee Tahoe Mortuary at 8 p.m. tonight.

Quilici was a native of Verdi, Nevada, but the past 34 years had resided in Truckee where for the past 25 years he and his surviving wife, Alice Marie, owned and operated Fontana's Laundry. Prior to their purchase of the business from the former owner, A. P. Fontana, the deceased was employed there.

More than a year ago, Quilici was stricken ill and was forced to leave Truckee to secure medical aid in the bay area but his health continued to fail.

Quilici was born Sept. 18, 1911 and was a member of a widely known and respected Nevada family. He is survived by his wife and four brothers, Geno of Camas, Wash., Rico and Bruno of Verdi and Frank of Truckee. Walter Mansen of Reno is a brother-in-law.

Quilici was active in civic affairs and was an ardent sportsman.

The couple, after the sale of their business, retained their home on East River Street and it is understood that Mrs. Quilici plans to return to make her home here.

Colonel John Barnard Assumes Command Duty

LOMPOC, Calif. – U.S. Air Force Colonel John R. Barnard, son of Mrs. Una Belle Barnard of 504 Boston Road, Syracuse, N.Y., has assumed duties as 10th Aerospace Defense Group deputy commander for material at Vandenberg AFB, Calif.

The colonel's wife, Joan, is the daughter of Louise Howard of 307 Deer St., Kings Beach, Calif. The Barnards are parents of a daughter, Jeanne, 22, and two sons, Jon, 18, and Thomas, 2.

Colonel Barnard previously served as a rotational crew commander in the 25th Aerospace Defense Squadron at Vandenberg.

The colonel entered the armed forces in 1942 and was commissioned through the aviation cadet program in 1944. During World War II, he was a B-17 Flying Fortress navigator on reconnaissance flights throughout Europe.

In 1945, he entered the Syracuse University Law School, received his LL.B. degree in 1948 and returned to active duty later that year.

During his military career, he has served in the office of the Aerospace Defense Command inspector general; the Aerospace Defense Systems office in Los Angeles as Air Force Systems Command liaison officer and as commander of the 4751st Air Defense Missile Squadron at Eglin AFB, Fla.

Colonel Barnard's decorations include the Legion of Merit and the Air Force Commendation Medal.

Airport Bids Called For

Bids for the construction of a parking apron, service road and hangar area at the Truckee-Tahoe Airport will be opened by the governing board of the airport district at 11 a.m., Sept. 16.

Proposals must be submitted on bid forms furnished by the district and delivered in a sealed envelope plainly marked with the project name and the name and address of the bidder on the outside.

Plans and specifications are available for inspection at the office of the district, located at the airport.

Fourth Annual Lido-14 Races This Weekend

The fourth annual Lido 14 Invitational Sailing Regatta, sponsored by the Donner Lake Sailing Club, will be held this weekend, September 7 and 8, at Donner Lake.

The schedule calls for two races Saturday and a third one on Sunday. There will be a skipper's meeting at Cottage Pines Motel at 11 a.m. Saturday, featuring complimentary doughnuts and coffee courtesy of the sailing club, followed by the first race at noon and the second one at 2 p.m.

The third race will start at noon Sunday, followed by trophy presentation. The social part of the schedule includes a no-host cocktail party at 7 p.m. Saturday at Donner Lake Lodge, followed by dinner at the lodge at 8.

All races will be conducted under NAYRU rules, and Donner Lake Sailing Club and Lido 14 Class Association rules.

Airplane Crashes In Tahoe; Pilot Is Rescued In Dark

A Cessna 150 piloted by Howard Wayne Rieschell, a 28-year-old rocket test engineer from San Jose, went down in Lake Tahoe Friday evening about a mile north of Tahoe Keys beach.

Rieschell told South Lake Tahow law enforcement officials that he had filed a flight plan for Clear Lake, Calif., just before leaving the Reed-Hillview Airport at San Jose at 10:15 p.m. Friday.

He said he spotted a lake which he thought was Clear Lake. He started his descent by coming down to 3,500 feet which his map indicated was the correct approach altitude for Clear Lake. He apparently was more than 100 miles off course and over Lake Tahoe.

The last time he looked at his altimeter he said he was passing 7,500 feet and was traveling between 70 and 80 knots. Shortly thereafter his landing gear made contact with the water. The aircraft nosed over, coming to rest upside down in the water.

He unbuckled himself and climbed onto a wing. The aircraft floated for three to four minutes and as it sank, Rieschell said he jumped into the water and started swimming for lights he could see on the shoreline. As he was swimming he heard a motor boat engine and started yelling for help.

Neal H. Erskine, South Lake Tahoe, and Morgan Roberts of Walnut Creek were in the boat, heard the pilot's shouts, and pulled him from the water.

The two men said they were coming from Emerald Bay to Camp Richardson when they ran out of gas. While they were switching fuel tanks they heard the pilot yelling for help.

The plane, which went down off Eagle Point in an area which measures 1,100 feet in depth, has not been located.

Bid Opening On Park Job

Directors of the Truckee-Donner Recreation and Park District will open bids at 8 p.m., Sept. 5 for construction and improvement of facilities at the Truckee River Park just south of town on State Route 267.

The first call for bids on the project received no bidders and the directors decided to divide the work into six separate parts and bidders may select any one of the six or make an offer on all.

Dr. H. P. Tapia, superintendent of the district, said a maximum of 120 calendar days will be allowed for the work after a contract is awarded, hoping the job can be completed before winter.

The work involves some 50 acres and includes site grading, access roads and paths, parking lots, water, sanitary and sewage facilities, rest rooms, irrigation facilities and landscaping.

The project is financed by federal, state and local funds.

Counties Get Revenue From Timber Sales

Nevada County will receive $113,093 of the $8.6 million this year from the sales in national forests.

Rep. Harold T. Johnson said $6.7 million will be distributed to the 20 counties comprising his 2nd, mountain-valley, district. Placer County will receive $219,952.

Under federal law, the U.S. Forest Service must share 25 per cent of the net revenues from timber sales with local governments. The funds are earmarked for highways and education.

California's share this year is more than $2 million above the 1966 and 1967 levels because of the sharp increase in timber transaction.

Art Show At Park

An art show will be conducted for one week, starting this Sunday, September 8, in the Ehrman Mansion at Sugar Pine Point State Park. The show is being sponsored by local advisory committee to the California Department of Parks and Recreation.

Exhibits will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except Tuesday, September 10, when the park is closed. For information, call 583-3461.

Relocate Highway At Incline

Tahoe Boulevard in Incline Village will become a part of Nevada State Highway 28 this fall, with the state undertaking widening and improving of the road as traffic requires.

The present section of Highway 28 that parallels Tahoe Boulevard along the lake shore will revert to Washoe County and will be maintained as a residential street.

The project will cost an estimated $410,000, and construction bids were scheduled to be opened this week. Highway personnel expect the present traffic load of 4,100 vehicles per day to increase in 20 years to 9,400 vehicles per day.

Bridge Repair Starts On I80

MARYSVILLE – Construction has started on a $77,000 highway project on Interstate 80 freeway in Nevada County about seven miles east of Truckee where the concrete deck of the Hinton Road Undercrossing will be replaced.

Motorists are urged to watch for warning signs in the area indicating a detour which will open on or about Thursday.

Traffic will be diverted to the north (westbound) structure with one lane available in each direction.

A. Teichert & Son Inc. of Sacramento is the contractor. James T. Pease of Marysville is resident engineer for the State Division of Highways.

DEATH CAR — Douglas County Sheriff's Deputy Paul Delorey and an unidentified man, probably a police photographer, examine the wreckage of the car in which Richard Chartran was killed Tuesday when a bomb exploded; Chartran was owner of Barney's Casino at South Lake Tahoe; car was blown up in driveway of his home in Skyland, near Zephyr Cove, Nevada.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

With the Labor Day weekend passed, there is the usual exodus of summer residents, vacationers and visitors from our area, as "flatlanders" prepare for the opening of schools in their home communities.

By so doing, they are missing what we have have always contended to be the most beautiful and serene season of the year, both from a climatical and picturesque standpoint. The chilly mornings and evenings, with warm sunshine throughout the days, lend themselves to a most peaceful atmosphere. The color changes in the trees and willows, the placid, mirror-like lakes and the lack, or at least the diminishing of hurried, almost frantic traffic, create a world of its own – one in which tranquility predominates.

One of the most frequent errors being made these days by motorists is that of picking up hitchhikers. Drivers will stop and accommodate a perfect stranger without question, not knowing whether he is an escaped prisoner or a patient from a mental institution or whether he is bent on robbery or worse.

These same motorists would hestitate a long time before inviting the stranger into their home or office and yet they risk their purse, their car and even their life by offering them a ride.

The hitchhiker, 99 times out of 100, may be an honest, clean-cut citizen, returning to college or on leave from military service, trying to get home or back to his base or ship. These people are entitled to a lift, but the driver picking them up should assure himself in advance that he and his family will not be placed in danger. There are far too many incidents of violence to shrug off the matter lightly.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR, SIERRA SUN:

On behalf of the Tahoe Squaws, we wish to thank you and your staff for all your news coverage. We also wish to thank everyone who donated and purchased the many and assorted items of clothing, housewares, and so on. Through community effort, we had another wonderfully successful sale.

EDITOR, SIERRA SUN:

I was rather moved by Miss Emery's letter. She is rather clever dramatically. I think it is the task of the U.S. to stop communist world takeover, but this is not what we are doing in Vietnam.

What we are doing is basking in the prosperity of war which is, after all, good business.

Mr. Emery was very right when he said that we would have to draw the line somewhere. But where? At our shore line? At the Mississippi River? At the District boundaries of Washington D.C.?

I believe the line is being erased. It was erased in Berlin (the wall). It was erased in Cuba. It was ignored in North Korea with the taking of the Pueblo. It is being lost in the drawn-out war in Vietnam.

Miss Emery's prayers may help her, but they won't stop communism. She will no doubt, being only 19, keep praying when we do pull out of Vietnam, and still praying when the communists come around and collect the "registered" guns, and pray at home when the communists close her church.

All of this will be made possible through the citizen that exercises his freedom to do nothing at all. I went to Berkeley where political assembly was denied to the Peace and Freedom Party until a few thousand skulls were beat bloody by the police. The assembly did take place, though. The citizen need not risk his life to vote, however – not yet, Miss Emery– so pray for the voters, and keep freedom alive at the birth of a citizen who will stop communism.

Thank you so very much for your Hans Reiss Memorial Book Fund article. It was most kind of you to give it so much space, and I am deeply grateful.

I am sure Mr. Roy Baker at the Community Library is completely ecstatic!

I went over to see him on Tuesday, and took him three quite sizeable checks that had been mailed for me for the fund, and three smaller ones.

He had also received two from San Francisco friends of Hans and mine.

I am now about to go to work on the pen and ink drawing for the Memorial Bookplate that I am giving and I am so hoping that I can get down on paper the scene I can so clearly picture in my mind?

Thank you again for your help.

I receive my Truckee paper every week right on time and as a gal who was raised there all my life until I married a fellow from Oklahoma, I must say I really enjoy it as that is the only source of information as to what's going on around home.

I read where Mr. Loehr was defeated for supervisor, and I must say what is wrong with the people of Truckee? His qualifications and experience should have been enough for another term.

Also, I read Mrs. Mary Ann Haswell's letter where she asked for the position of girl's physical education teacher and was refused. Well, I sure think her rights were violated. I have known Mary Ann all my Truckee years also, and the school board should have given her first chance and all consideration on this matter, as she sure is a local girl and best qualified.

Truckee has sure changed since I married. Lots of new people moving in trying to take over and the heck with the old timers, but as I always believe, they will have to stand up for what they think is right.

We always go to Truckee to work in the summer, but we didn't go this year and I must say I really missed going. I love Truckee and your paper very much, so keep up the good work.

Hello to all the folks in Truckee who know me. I am in Oklahoma but my heart is in Truckee. Perhaps we will go next summer. Hello Mama and Daddy Montano.

Tax Collector Elected To National Post

AUBURN -- F. Earl Corin, veteran Placer County treasurer–tax collector, was elected president of the National Association of County Treasurers and Finance Officers at the organization's recent meeting in Washington, D. C.

National Association of County Treasurers and Finance Officers (NACTFO), an affiliate of the National Association of Counties, is a professional organization whose members also include Tax Collectors, Auditors and Assessors from the 3,043 Counties throughout the United States.

Corin was the first Californian to be picked for the top NACTFO job in the Association's 25 year history.

The 43 year old Placer County Official literally worked his way to the top. He has served as vice–president of NACTFO where he introduced, nationally, innovations developed for the Placer County Treasurer's office.

Prior to holding posts in the National Association, Corin has been President of the California State Association of Treasurers and also the California Tax Collector's organization.

Kings Beach To Get Funds For Project

Approval by the federal government of a grant for more than $200,000 in matching funds for marina and beach development in the Kings Beach area has been announced by Bill Briner, Placer County Supervisor from Tahoe City.

Construction could commence next summer if the state Department of Harbors and Water Craft can appropriate the money and if the legislature approves the overall program. Half of the total $425,000 grant will be provided by the state and half by the federal government.

Placer County will add $40,000 plus title to 200 feet of beach. North Tahoe Public Utility District will provide another $10,000.

Briner said he thought the funds will be included in the federal budget.

Here's Riley

By ERNIE RILEY

Chauna is a very pretty and friendly Siamese cat, four years old who, with her family, the John W. Collisters, has lived in Reno since she was a tiny kitty. Several months ago the family built a nice home in Alpine Meadows, where Chauna and the Collister children would explore the nearby creek and surrounding area.

Early in June, Chauna was outside alone, checking up on things, and failed to show up for dinner. Everyone was very concerned because a city kitty could get lost in the forest.

The neighborhood was alerted. Young and old searched high and low for Chauna, but to no avail. Sadly but hopefully, the Collisters would look for her on their frequent visits to Alpine Meadows. The neighbors continued to search during the Collister's absence.

After a time, another kitty was brought into the home to be loved and to take the place of Chauna. During the last week in August, over two months after Chauna disappeared, the Collisters were having dinner when they heard a loud meowing at the front door. Sure enough, Chauna had come home.

During the exciting reunion, the family saw that Chauna was so well fed and nicely groomed that they knew someone must have taken care of their little wanderer. Needless to say, everyone is very happy that Chauna is safely home. The Collisters thank whoever took such good care of Chauna during her adventure.

Eight bluejays, three robins, four chipmunks, four squirrels and a dozen or so black–headed juncos have a bread–crumb treat on our back porch each morning while the Riley's have their coffee. The past few mornings a tiny junco has had a guest that is about four times its size.

The junco picks up bread crumbs to feed the big one, who then squacks and flaps its wings. We found that the big fellow is a baby cow bird. Mother cow birds do not build nests but lay their eggs in some other bird's next, leaving the care and feeding and teaching of her baby to the foster mother.

Seems like some humans do the same thing.

GENE CHAPPIE REPORTS
6th ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

This week I will summarize for you the major water legislation which was enacted into law by the California State Legislature during the 1968 session.

State Water Project SB 261 (Cologne): This is the major legislation providing additional financing for the State Water Project. The bill released $31 million from the offset provisions of the Burns–Porter Act, and permits expenditure of the funds for completion of the initial project facilities during 1968–70.

The bill also appropriates an additional $14 million annaully in Long Beach oil and gas revenues (beginning with the 1970–71 fiscal year) to the Department of Water Resources for construction of the project.

This will raise the total tidelands revenues dedicated to water purposes from $16 to $30 million annually. In addition, the bill authorizes the State Wildlife Conservation Board to construct fishing access sites along the project's aqueducts. (Urgency measure, effective June 29, 1968).

SB 867 (Cologne) – This bill provides approval of State Water Project construction costs allocated to recreation and fish and wildlife enhancement, and recreation land costs for a total of $13,511,294. This bill increased the allocations by $5,250,453 over the last year's total.

The money released is part of the $5 million in tidelands revenues annually set aside under legislation sponsored by the Assembly Water Committee in 1966.

AB 942 (Monagan) – This bill creates a Delta Water Agency, comprising parts of six counties (Sacramento, San Joaquin, Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano and Yolo) for the purpose of contracting with the State or the United States government relative to the maintenance of water quality and water supplies in the area within the agency. The Agency should provide a vehicle for resolving many of the presently unresolved water quality and supply problems of the Sacramento–San Joaquin Delta.

Flood Control SB 559 (McCarthy): This bill specifies that recreational uses must be given consideration in flood control projects of the federal government for which the state reimburses for the cost of lands, easements, and rights–of–way pursuant to the State Water Resources Law of 1945.

The bill requires the plans for such uses to be prepared in cooperation with the Department of Water Resources and authorizes State reimbursement to local agencies for lands, easements, and rights–of–way for such recreation development features. The bill also requires a local agency to execute an agreement with the Department of Water Resources that it will develop and operate the lands for recreation upon terms and conditions agreed upon by the Department.

Miscellaneous AB 1021 (Porter, Chappie): This bill expands the statutory responsibilities of the California Advisory Committee on Western States Water Planning. The Advisory Committee consists of four members of the public, appointed by the Governor, a representative of the California Water Commission, one Senator and one Assemblyman. It is charged with advising the Legislature and the executive branch of government on all aspects of regional water resources planning, including activities of the Western States Water Council, federal legislation and other inter–state matters.

AJR 37 (Porter, Chappie) – This resolution memorializes the President and the Congress to enact legislation to clarify federal–state water rights relationships. Legislation by Senator Thomas Kuchel of California (S 2919) is pending during the Second Session of the 90th Congress.

SCR 59 (Marks) – This resolution requests the Department of Water Resources, in cooperation with the State Water Resources Control Board, to report to the 1969 Legislature on the extent to which waste water reclamation can reduce the need for additional supplemental water supplies.

AB 1388 (Stull) – This bill makes a number of clarifications in the statute establishing the California Water Commission as its "Executive Officer."

AB 1949 (Stull) – This bill adds cathodic protection wells to those water wells subject to state regulation under the Water Well Standards legislation.

Applications Are Approved

The Nevada County Planning Commission last week conditionally approved a variance application by Albert F. Schoof for reduction of the minimum required lot sizes on property owned by the applicant in the western section of the Donner Lake area.

A use permit was granted Arthur L. Kennerson for construction and maintenance of a single–family residence in the Waltz Tract on the north side of Donner Lake.

A similar application from Shigerori Iyama on property owned by the applicant on old Highway 40 at Donner Lake was approved. Francis Longo represented the Truckee–Donner area on the commission.

Unique Lecture Series On Pioneer History Offered At Reno Library

Authorities on Nevada history will combine their knowledge to present a popular series of lectures and slide programs for the public, beginning at 2 p.m. on the second Sunday of September and continuing on that day each month through May, 1969.

Washoe County Library's auditorium ,301 South Center Street, Reno, is the setting for "Nevada Panorama: a history series of general interest," co-sponsored by the Nevada Historical Society, the Nevada State Archives and the library as a service to the Silver Circle community.

Subjects throughout the year will cover archoeology, Basques, forts, gaming industry, government, Indians, mining, pioneers, immigrant and sheep trails and railroads. Also there will be speakers dwelling upon particular sections of the state such as Reno and southern Nevada.

The series concerning the state's formation and growth is free but because of limited seating reservations should be made for individual lectures by contacting the library reference desk.

Secretary of State, the honorable John Koontz, will open the series on Sept. 8. Speakers are Dr. Everett Harris, professor emeritus of the U of N mechanical engineering department, and Dr. Vincent P. Gianella, professor emeritus of the U of N geology department. Harris's topic is "The Overland Emigrant Trail to California" and Gianella will speak on "John Charles Fremont – His Journey to Sutter's Fort, 1843-44."

"Early, Nevada Forts" and "Experiences of the Pioneers" will be discussed in a later program by Victor Goodwin, U. S. Forest Service representative to the U. S. D. A., and State archivist Frederick C. Gale, respectively.

Mining is another topic. Nevada Mining Association executive secretary Paul Gammel will speak on "Highlights of Western Mining." Dr. Russell Elliot, chairman of the U of N history department, will trace "Twentieth Centruy Mining in Nevada."

State Museum staff members and the author of a recent book are scheduled to present January's program. "Nevada Archaeology" will be Donald Tuohy's topic and Howard Hickson will speak on the "Wax Indians." Mrs. Margaret Wheat, author of "Survival Arts of the Primitive Paiutes," will discuss "Nevada Indians." Tuohy is curator of the department of anthropology at the museum and Hickson is curator of exhibits.

Dr. Linden A. Rushmer, executive secretary of Nevada State Heritage, will present the topic "Nevada Railroads," Feb. 9. Sharing the program with him is Mrs. Byrd Wall Sawyer, discussing the "History of Reno." Mrs. Sawyer has co-authored several Nevada history books with Dr. Effie Mona Mack.

"Basques in Nevada" and "Nevada Sheep Trails" are scheduled for March 9. Robert Laxalt, director of the University of Nevada Press and author of several books, will speak on the history of his ancestors, the Basques. The honorable Ciel Georgetta, retired district judge of Washoe county, and author, will speak about the sheep trails.

Miss Grace Dangberg, curator of Carson Valley Historical Society, will describe the life and times of "Nevada's First Family" on April 13. Elbert B. Edwards, speaking on "History of Southern Nevada," shares that date. Edwards is an educator in southern Nevada and the president of Southern Nevada Historical Society.

"Gaming in Nevada" is the subject to be outlined by Edward A. Olsen, director of the Information and News Service at the University of Nevada and former chairman of the State Gaming Control Board. Olsen's presentation will close the series on May 4, 1969.

County Award For Minerals

For the first time in over sixteen years, Nevada County took first place in the mineral division of the state fair, over many other counties that competed. Cal-Expo officials noted that one exhibit was valued at $22,900.00.

Excellent display tactics by Keith Skidmore, the builder, was a contributing factor in winning this distinguished award. A trophy, approximately three feet high, and ribbons adorn the booth at Cal Expo.

The Nevada County Chamber of Commerce invites the citizens of Nevada County to view the excellent booths at the state fair at Cal-Expo.

The trouble with most modern novels is that the covers are too far apart.

Meeting On Bond Election

A public informational meeting sponsored by Tahoe City Public Utility District will be held in Tahoe City tomorrow night, September 5, at Tahoe Lake School, to discuss the upcoming $2 million general obligation bond election scheduled for October 1.

The funds will be used for truck sewer line construction along the west shore of Lake Tahoe from Tahoe City to Tahoma. The entire district will participate in the election.

Two-thirds of all voters in the district must cast ballots for the election to be valid. The issue must carry in each precinct.

Voting places will be in the Homewood Fire station, Waters Edge Lodge in Tahoma, and at Tahoe Lake School in Tahoe City.

Fair To Host Art Festival

AUBURN – A "Gold Country Festival of Art" will be held at the September 13-15 Auburn District Fair, it was announced this week by Bunny Nakagawa, secretary-manager.

Entries will be accepted until September 7 and are "open to the world," Nakagawa said.

Though only $76 is listed under "premium awards," the fair has guaranteed a minimum of four $50 purchase awards, and a $375 total cash minimum for winners.

Additional information will be made available upon application to ray Yamaskaki, Route 4, Box 4878, Auburn 95603, or Celia Broadwell, Route 1, Box 1470, Meadow Vista 95722.

Entry Blanks may also be obtained from the fair office.

Donner Doings

By VI WHITE

At the annual meeting of the Donner Lake Property Owners' Association August 31, the following members were elected to office: president, John Bowden, 3360 Johnson Road, Lafayette; first vice president, William Long, 4200 Buchanan Drive, Fair Oaks; second vice president, Thomas McLaughlin, 5214 Brom Circle, Castro Valley; treasurer, William Murphy, 2639 24th Avenue, San Francisco; secretary, Mrs. Ollie Ross, 3731 Laguna Way, Sacramento.

Outgoing president, Des Wirth, received applause from the membership for the excellent job during his two-year administration on many important projects.

Association members attending the meeting voted to purchase the additional beach area now available just north of the present private beach to Summit Creek. This will help accommodate the many new property owners who are joining, giving more room for waterskiing and swimming.

The Truckee – Donner Historical Society did get to Meadow Lake to outline the graves at the Summit City cemetery a couple of weekends ago, but the Truckee – Donner Horsemen didn't. They rode in from Cisco way and found that the water coming out of Fordyce Lake was too high to cross, so made camp nearby instead of at Meadow Lake. Only thing was, dinner was a bit late. Food and sleeping bags had been trucked in and by the time news got to the lake, things packed up again and brought to the horsemen, it was about 11 p.m. before the steak dinner was ready. But did it taste good and even though their distination wasn't reached, they had a real great time.

Fourteen boats formed the flotilla that hovered around Brodie's huge sleek flower-bedecked Revere at Tahoe last week when the Maharishi and his followers toured the north end of the lake.

Charlie White helped Bill Holman man the big boat, but were kept at a distance at all times during the trip as only the meditators could be near the Maharishi Mehesh Yogi who has held lectures at Squaw Valley for several weeks.

Tahoeites were treated to quite a spectacle when the white robed, long hair, bearded figure went aboard at the Safeway dock at Tahoe City, his followers bowing and casting flowers upon the water and on the boat, chanting "Maharishi."

No reply was heard when one follower asked if the Maharishi could walk on the water.

Nancy Brodie helped the participants board the Revere and remarked that she never saw such a non-nautical group. It's a wonder that some of the boats didn't capsize, with all the commotion.

Photographers were out en-masse for the event, but bikini-clad girls were asked to wear shirts in the presence of the Maharishi.

The day was perfect with only a slight wind and big billowy clouds hovered over the scene.

Two Donner Lake Waterski Club members competed in the Walker Lake Ski and Boat Club meet in Nevada Saturday.

Brad Jamieson placed 1st in Boys Slalom and included a barefoot exhibition which delighted the six hundred people attending.

Charlie White placed 5th in Men's Slalom that had over twenty contestants.

The next waterski meet is at Navoto, September 14-15 and following that at Aquatic Park, Berkeley, September 21-22.

Meeting For Women's Club

The next regular meeting of Wyethia Women's Club will be held Friday, September 6, at 1 p.m. in the clubhouse on Riverside Drive, Truckee. Speaker for the day will be Mrs. Rosemary Newton, of Lakewood, state craft chariman of the organization, who will demonstrate various craft projects.

All club members have been urged to attend, and interested non-club members may attend by contacting the club's president, Mrs. Dorothy Fordham at 587-3097, or the secretary, Mrs. Brown, at 587-3052.

Nutty Novelites At It Again At The Crystal Bay Club

The Nutty Novelties are at it again, keeping patrons of North Lake Tahoe's Crystal Bay Club convulsed with laughter. Frankie Carr is funnier than ever, playing the inebriated cowboy whose razor-sharp punch lines provice many a laugh at the expense of straight man Joe Mayer. Chuck Leonard gives out with the vocals, and they range all the way in impersonations from Sammy Davis, Jr. to Frank Sinatra.

The Novelities Show is a fast moving conglomeration of really great music, outstanding vocal interpretations and utter nonsense. One minute the audience sits hushed while Joe Mayer solos on his guitar or Chuck Leonard sings. The next instand they are hysterical with laughter over the zany antics of Frankie, as he changes hats and portrays famous people.

Alternating with the Novelties to provide the Crystal Bay Club's entertainment are the Coquettes, a talented sextet of lovely girls who have won the hearts of every audience. The Coquettes, headed by Jo Ann Bon, play 20 instruments among them. Every son is different due to the changing of instruments, and it actually sounds as if there were several orchestras onstage.

Kathy Diamond's organ solo, and Sandra Smith's drum solo are highlights of the show, receiving standing ovations from most audiences. Jo Ann herself emcees the show, doing a masterful job of fast-paced comedy, adlibs and amusing patter.

Between the acts, Charles Gould and his Satin Strings entertain, playing requests from the audience. The Satin Strings also stroll through the Crystal Dining Room and the Crystal Steak House, delighting diners with smooth, nostalgic music.

The Novelties, the Coquettes and Charles Gould and his Satin Strings entertain nightly in the Stage Lounge of the Crystal Bay Club on the North Shore of Lake Tahoe.

Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra Completes Incline Concerts

Featured artists, and professional teens comprising the Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra under the direction of Conductor William Whitson, performed for a full-house audience during the closing concert of a series sponsored by the Incline Village Fine Arts Guild at Ski Incline on Wednesday evening, August 28.

The orchestra first presented the three movements of the Concerto Grosso by Arcangelo Corelli, then the talented young people accompanied William Armstrong, piano soloist, playing Klavier Concerto in F Minor by J. S. Bach, and David Abel, violin solist, in Concerto No. 1 in A minor for Violin and Strings, also by Bach.

A special unannounced treat was selections rendered by Jeanette Cross, Soprano, head of the voice department at the Jamaica School of Music, accompanied by Camille Churchfield, talented young flutist and Donna Rae Machado, noted young cellest, both from the bay area.

The series, the first in a hopefully long line of north tahoe concert appearances, was part of the August Festival presented by the Fine Arts Guild with contributing sponsors Bonanza Land Company, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Buckwalter, Chamberlin Tahoe Homes, Incline Fashions, Incline Sports Haus, Incline Village Realty, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. James A. McCourry, North Shore and Village Hardware, Tahoe Racquet Club, Title Insurance and Trust Company, Tyrolian Village and Valley Bank of Nevada.

Plans ar under way to include a concert workshop for young musicians at Incline next year.

Map Is Filed

TAHOE CITY—An application for a land development permit and filing of a tentative map for a 36-unit cluster housing development at Tahoe Tavern Properties has been presented to the Placer County Planning Commission.

Reno Air Races Set For Sept. 15

A special one-hour air show will be staged at Reno/Stead Airport Sept. 15 to precede the arrival of planes competing in the Harolds Club Transcontinental Trophy Dash, the first official event of the National Championship Air Races.

Stanley Brown, chairman for the races, said the air show, scheduled this year for the first time, will coincide with the arrival of the cross-country racers.

It will include aircraft displays, fly-bys, parachute jumps, aerobatic acts and a demonstration of model airplanes. There will be no admission charge for the air show, Brown stated.

The special show, Brown reported, will begin at 2 p.m. in front of the bleachers and is expected to conclude before the first planes in the Harolds Club event arrive from Milwaukee, Wis., the origination point for the trophy dash.

Jerry Duty, director of the races, said 15 to 20 unlimited horsepower planes are expected to enter the 1667-mile race which will start at 11 a.m., PDT, from Gen. Billy Mitchell Field near Milwaukee. Capable of speeds of more than 350 miles an hour, the leaders of the flight should be landing at Reno/Stead between 3 and 3:30 p.m., Duty noted.

The Harolds Club Transcontinental Trophy Dash carries a purse of $15,000. Most of the Pilots will be flying modified fighter planes from the World War II era.

The other five classifications for this year's National Championship Air Races will be staged Sept. 20-22. The two days for qualifying are Sept. 18-19.

Service For Max Weiss

The body of Max Weiss, 79, a dealer in a Crystal Bay casino, who died Sunday morning in a Kings Beach trailer court, has been shipped to Las Vegas for funeral services and burial. Weiss, a native of Poland, died in his sleep. He leaves a son residing in Las Vegas.

The Truckee-Tahoe Mortuary had charge of local arrangements.

North Shore Club Hopping Into Seasonal Home Stretch

With Labor Day 1968 in the history book the North Shore Club Hotel begins its final two months of operation, closing November 1 until next Summer. Lenny Herman and his mightiest little band in the land returned this week to enliven the concluding entertainment program.

Joining John St. John and Charlie Blackwell, these three musical groups will provide the dinner and dancing music during the month of September, at the end of which John St. John will take his trio to Phoenix for their annual engagement there leaving Lenny Herman and Charlie Blackwell to keep things jumping at the North Shore Club during October.

In rapid succession, the Third Annual Tournament of the Northern California Dental Association; the Third Annual Tournament of the California Men's Apparel Association and the 5th Annual Doug Pledger Tourney will follow the boys who play the game left handed. Each of these contingents will between 200 and 400 strong.

In the midst of all this golfing activity, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Carson City Hospital will hold a benefit luncheon on Setp. 10, to which the public is cordially invited. The funds will be used to assist in the reconstruction of the hospital which was burned down last week.

Fur Trappers Show Decline

California fur trappers reprted a decline in both their catch and earnings for the 1967-68 season, the Department of Fish and Game reports. The number of active trappers also was down.

Trappers reporting to the DFG totaled 186, compared with 207 the previous year, and income was down from $57,053 realized by trappers in 1966-67 to $43,041 in 1967-68.

The total catch was down from 48,098 to 44,465. Muskrats, which have been the traditional leader in the California fur catch, again led in the number of pelts taken (40,370) and revenue received for furs $25,384. The past two years have shown a sharp decline in the average price paid for muskrat pelts, from $1.30 per pelt in 1965-66 to $.88 the following year and then to $.64 for the past year.

Other animals taken by trappers include badger, beaver, bobcat, coyote, fox, mink, opossum, raccoon, skunks, and weasels.

THREE LADIES —Are three reasons for the popularity of the North Shore Club's strolling fashion show staged every Wednesday from noon to 2 p.m. They are, from left, Betty Gelber, fashion delineator; Shirley Pinfold; and Bethel Van Tassel. Every Wednesday during the Luncheon hour a Reno shop provides the latest in fashions to be modeled for the entertainment of North Shore Club diners.

Eberhard And Smith Rites

Miss Sharon Louise Eberhard was a beautiful bride when she was united in marriage with Darrel Arthur Smith at a double ring ceremony held last Saturday at one o'clock at the Corpus Christi Church in Tahoe City. Officiating at the marriage rites was Father Ronan Brennan.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Balfour, of Rancho Bernardo, San Diego, was beautifully dressed in a traditional white satin gown with an empress waistline with white lace over the bodice and a chapel length satin and lace train. The gown was hand fashioned by a family friend, Mrs. Vivian Hainline of Los Angeles. A family heirloom silver tiara was combined with orange blossoms, lace, and elbow-length veil to make up her head piece. A bouquet of white daisies and an orchid completed the bride's ensemble.

Jeri Eberhard acted as her sister's maid of honor and was becomingly attired in a yellow dotted swiss gown. The bridesmaids, dressed in gowns of seafoam green, were Connie Miles of Donner Lake and Pat Paterson of Tahoe City. They carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies and pink rosebuds.

Completing the wedding party were Ron Smith, who served as his brother's best man, and Hobby Hopkins of the Highlands, Brooks Mitchell and Gordon Powers, both of Loyalton, who were ushers.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Eberhard of Tahoe City and the late Robert Eberhard while the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Smith of the Highlands.

The new Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Granada Hills High School in San Fernando and the groom is a graduate of Tahoe-Truckee High School where he was active in all school affairs, being president of the student body his senior year.

A champagne wedding reception honoring the newly weds was held at the Homewood Hof Brau immediately after the wedding ceremony. After a short wedding trip to Carmel and San Francisco, the young couple will make their home in Sacramento where they are junior and senior students at Sacramento State College.

AUGUST FESTIVAL CONCERT – William Whitson and the Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra gave a series of concerts last week at Ski Incline Lodge as part of the August Music Festival, sponsored by Incline Fine Arts Guild; festival included art exhibits, wine tasting, flea market, was climaxed by Beaux Arts Ball. —Sun Photo.

Ski Club Seeks Members

The Incline Ski Club will hold their annual Barbeque-Membership Drive, complete with water skiing, games, and loads of good food at Burnt Cedar Beach in Incline on September 14, from 2 to 7 p.m.

Families are invited to come and join in the festivities, and members will be contacted as to the side dish to bring. Reservations may be made at the Incline Sports Haus in the Village shopping Cneter and the cost of a steak dinner is $1.50 and hot dogs 25 cents per person.

Pork Perfect For Barbecue

Appetites soar when there's pork roasting on the rotisserie over glowing charcoal briquets. Outdoor chefs recommend that you start operations well ahead of time — 4-1/2 to 5 hours before ringing the dinner bell.

Before roasting begins, the charcoal briquets should have burned until covered with a fine, gray ash. More briquets will need to be added later, so keep a small supply of ignited briquets along the edge.

Pork roasts should be as regular in shape as possible. Boneless or boned and tied roasts are good.

Insert the rotisserie rod, lengthwise, through the center of the roast. Proper balance is essential, so test it by rotating the rod in the palm of your hand. Then tighten the holding forks or fasten securely with string.

Cookie Shippers Are At It Again

Mrs. Ruby Wall, Truckee coordinator for Operation Cookie, announces that she is accepting names of servicemen to receive free packages of cookies from the county-wide organization.

Any serviceman from Nevada County, or whose parents are currently living in Nevada County, is eligible to receive a goody box. September 10 is the packing date this month, and Mrs. Wall will take names and addresses up to September 9. Her telephone number is 587-4088.

Man Held On Drug Charges

RENO — A Texas man, Eric E. Remington, of Austin, is being held at Washoe Medical Center on a charge of possession of marijuana after he was involved in an accident Friday, which killed one man and injured several others.

Remington is in serious condition. The accident occured eight miles south of Reno on Highway 395.

Washoe Medical Center emergency attendants said a brown envelope fell from his pants pocket while they cut away his clothes before treatment of injuries.

Deputies believe the envelope contained marijuana.

Killed in the crash was Clifford J. Lee, 24, of Angleton, Tex. He was the driver of the northbound car. His 23–year–old wife, Margaret Joy Lee, 23, of Houston, is in serious condition, according to a hospital spokesman.

Ernest Schoenfield Jr., 40, of 550 Margarave Drive was booked in Washoe County Jail on charges of manslaughter and reckless driving.

WINNER — Holly Spolin of Squaw Valley is congratualted by Jimmy Grogan, director of Squaw Valley Summer Figure Skating School, for receiving special achievement award of Squaw Valley Skating Club.

Cattlemen's Field Day Set For Both Counties

Stockmen from Placer, Nevada and neighboring counties will meet at the Pete & Vera Hawkins Grass Ravine Ranch in Ophir, Placer County for the annual Cattlemen's Fall Field Day set for Saturday, September 21st.

The program, jointly sponsored by the University of California Agricultural Extension Service and the Tahoe Cattlemen's Association, will feature demonstrations on freeze branding and the use of dust bags for fly control.

Cattlemen's Association President Giles Martin has scheduled reports of committees for the afternoon session. Subjects will include property tax legislation, livestock assessment activities and plans for the Sierra Range Bull Sale scheduled for December 7, 1968 at the Placer County Fairgrounds, Roseville.

A beef luncheon is being arranged by the Placer–Nevada CowBelles. A special feature of the luncheon will be home made ice cream.

Hosts Vera and Pete Hawkins, Giles Martin and Farm Advisor Jack Herr invite all people interested in the beef cattle industry to attend this annual event. Reservations are requested and can be made at the Farm Advisor's office in Grass Valley – phone 273–4563 or in Auburn – 885–4551.

Student Reports On Workshop

By LAUREL WHITED
Journalism Student

RENO — Imagine being able to spend six days at the first exciting high school journalism institute to be held at the University of Nevada, where you will learn new journalistic techniques, meet professional journalists, and get a real sampling of college life!

I, as a journalism student of STHS, and 41 other students selected from five western states, attended the institute. It was an invaluable experience, one that I will never forget.

The journalism high school workshop primarily was developed to give students a chance to more fully develop their interests and learn more in the field of journalism.

It was all very exciting on Aug. 18, when we checked into the co–ed college campus dorm, Nye Hall, our home for six days until we left on Aug. 23. College life was new and very different at first, but after the first day everyone had adjusted to the beautiful campus and started to feel more at home.

The workshop was wonderful and very complete. Just during those few days, I probably learned more than I could have learned in a month of school. We spent eight hours a day listening to interesting lectures by experienced journalists, seeing educational movies, discussing our problems in our school papers and yearbooks in seminars, and going on field trips to places of special interest.

The workshop was divided into three sections.

What's Up Front That Counts

With thousands of rear–end collisions on our nation's highways every year, it's definitely what's "up front" that counts.

That driver ahead of you is unpredictable. Some unknown danger may cause him to stop suddenly, and without warning. In many cases, however, he still gives you that warning. But you must be alert enough to catch it.

Let his emergency maneuvering catch you unawares and you might be the one to do the ramming on the highway.

National Automobile Club cautions you to watch for stoplights on vehicles ahead of you in traffic. This practice will give you advance warning of the need to slow down or stop. And by safely carrying out this slowing and stopping, you will prevent a rear–end collision.

You can't safely carry out this slowing and stopping, however, without following the car in front of you at a safe distance.

To determine that safe distance, you can use the old rule of thumb, that of allowing at least one car length for every 10 miles an hour of speed. Or you can use the new rule, points out NAC, that of counting "one thousand and one, one thousand and two" to estimate the two–second time interval needed.

When the car ahead passes some landmark, such as a road sign, that's the time to start counting. If you finish your two–second count before your car reaches the same landmark, then you're following too closely.

In addition to protecting you, keeping the gap helps make your driving smoother. Then again, you must consider the "compulsive gap–filler" who can't resist sandwiching himself in any opening longer than his car. So keep your gap adequate, but not too big, too inviting.

Keep your eyes on road and traffic conditions way ahead of you and certain clues will forewarn you of possible danger, clues such as a driver trying to force himself into your lane. Watch out for him.

Do You Own A Sports Car?

LOS ANGELES – Do you own a sports car?

Watch out, for that car might have illegal lights.

Most of the lights considered illegal in California appear on sports cars, according to the National Automobile Club, but not as part of the original equipment.

Did you purchase your driving or fog lamps through the mail? If so, remember that mail purchases account for most of the illegal lights. Some, however, come with used cars or cars formerly registered in another state.

Which lights violate California law? Take the lights designed for racing, as examples. These prove illegal because they have a higher light output than allowed on passenger cars traveling California roads.

School Time:

SAN FRANCISCO – It's "back to school time" for thousands of California children. The National Automobile Club urges motorists to be especially watchful for youngsters on their way to and from school.

NAC reminds drivers that children often forget safety rules, and that the responsibility for preventing a tragic accident rests in the hands of adults. A child darting into the street without considering the consequences is understandable.

The action of an adult racing through a school zone is unforgivable.

The statewide motorists' organization asks drivers to follow these "life saving" safety rules:

– Exercise extreme caution during the hours of 7:30–9 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. Children are traveling to and from school in great numbers.

– Stay within the 25 mile–per–hour speed limit while in a school zone.

– Watch for youngsters who may be hidden from view. One could appear from behind a parked car at any time.

– Give children the right–of–way. Depend on your own good sense, not a small child's.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

ALL TAXPAYERS, WHETHER DELINQUENT OR NOT SHOULD CAREFULLY EXSHOULD CAREFULLY EXAMINE THE DELINQUENT TAX TO OCCUR WHICH, IF NOT DISCOVERED IN TIME, WOULD CAUSE INCONVENIENCE TO PARTIES CONCERNED. TAXPAYERS WHO HAVE DISPOSED OF PROPERTY SINCE MARCH 1, 1967, MAY FIND THEIR NAMES LISTED FOR THE REASON THAT PRESENT OWNERS HAVE FAILED TO PAY TAXES AND ACCORDING TO LAW THE NAME APPEARING ON THE CURRENT ROLL MUST BE PUBLISHED.

PARCEL NUMBERING SYSTEM EXPLANATION:

The Assessor's map parcel number when used to describe property in this list, refers to the Assessor's map book, the map page or block number in the book and the individual parcel number on the map page or within the block. A parcel number, as for example 3–360–10 would mean Book 3 of the Assessor's maps, Map page 36, and Parcel 10 on that map. A parcel number as for example, 3–363–05 would mean Book 3 of the Assessor's Maps, Block 363 (Map 36 Block 3) and Parcel 5 within that block. The maps referred to are available for inspection in the office of the Assessor.

Pursuant to Sections 3381 through 3385, Revenue and Taxation Code, the Published Delinquent List in and for the County of Nevada, State of California, has been divided and distributed to various newspapers of general circulation published in said county, for publication of a portion thereof in each of said newspapers.

DELINQUENT TAX NOTICE
AFFIDAVIT OF
REAL PROPERTIES
SOLD TO THE STATE

MARCELLA J. CARSON, Tax Collector of the County of Nevada, State of California, being first duly sworn upon oath, deposes and says:

That notice is hereby given that because of non–payment of the total amount due for taxes, assessments and other charges levied in the Year 1967 for the Fiscal Year 1967–1968, shown in dollars and cents opposite the description of the property contained in the list below, the real properties on which such amounts were a lien were, by operation of law, in my office at County Court House, City of Nevada City, County of Nevada, sold to the State of California at 5 o'clock P. M., on the 28th day of June, 1968.

Real property sold to the State may be redeemed by payment of all unpaid taxes and assessments together with such additional penalties and fees as prescribed by law, or may be redeemed under an installment plan of redemption.

All information concerning redemption, or the initiation of an installment plan of redemption of tax–sold property will, upon request, be furnished by MARCELLA J. CARSON, Tax Collector and Redemption Officer, Room 101, County Court House Annex, Nevada City, California.

MARCELLA J. CARSON
Tax Collector of Nevada County

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
VARIANCE APPLICATION FOR REDUCTION OF FRONT YARD IN CONSTRUCTION OF A SINGLE–FAMILY RESIDENCE – WALTZ TRACT, DONNER LAKE.

Notice is hereby given that on September 17, 1968, at 10:35 a.m. in the Supervisors' Room, Courthouse, Nevada City, California, the Nevada County Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing where will be heard persons desiring to make statements concerning the variance application of Arthur L. Kennerson and the recommendation of the Nevada County Planning Commission that the applicant be allowed to construct a single–family residence with the reduction of the front yard from the required 20 feet to 15 feet on property being purchased by the applicant from Franklin White. Said property is located in a "C" Zoning District at the address of Old U.S. 40, Donner Lake; said property being legally described as follows:

A portion of the S 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Sec. 18, T.17N., R.16E., M.D.B.&M. known as Lot 20 of the Waltz Tract as that map is recorded in Book 1 of Subdivisions at Page 99 in the Office of the Recorder, County of Nevada, State of California (Assessor's Parcel No. 18–401–19).

Lake Echoes

The Beaux Arts Ball Saturday night was the highlight of the August Festival sponsored by the Fine Arts Guild of Incline Village. Hewitt Clark, president of the Guild, is to be commended for the tremendous success of the ball and the past month, as is his charming wife, Sharon, for her constant encouragement and assistance to assure the success of the month's activities.

A pre-ball cocktail party, hosted by the Clarks, Colonel and Frances Hayman, and Virginia and Jack Hoyt, held at the Hoyt's home, was a marvelous affair. Mickey Gentile entertained at the piano and Ellis Baldwin was a bartender, par excellence. Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Ed Fike of Nevada and Supervisor Bill and Fritzi Briner of Homewood were among the many guests who attended.

* * *

Speaking of the Ball, something long awaited and seemingly impossible was accomplished. We finally met our "bosses"! Coming from Truckee were Deloras and Carl Briggs. Carl is editor of the Sierra Sun and a worthy substitute for our long admired Walt Barrett. From South Tahoe came publisher Frank Newell and his wife, Susanne. The rapport was only marred by the fact that Artis Clotfelter, another of the staff, is leaving. The Clotfelters will make their new home in Roseville.

* * *

Our thanks to Sharon and Hewitt Clark for saying "Be Our Guest." Their thanks to Bill Lake who acted as auctioneer, Virginia Hoyt for her chairmanship, Frances Hayman, who worked from her wheelchair, and Betty Ulhorn for her decoration chairmanship, and everyone who assisted and all who attended.

* * *

Carol and Fred Onorato of Squaw Valley were among those at the Ball. Fred enjoyed a party after having hosted almost a thousand guests while the Maharishi Mahesh Yogi was there. He was too busy with guests for conversion! Come next month, Fred is off to Chicago to attend the Ski Show, then to Vancouver, Seattle, and points west to other ski shows to concentrate on the winter season.

* * *

Geri and Don Marek entertained as their weekend guests, who also attended the Beaux Arts Ball with them, Barbara and Richard Pospisil of Los Altos, Sydney and Richard Dodds and Val and Bruce Stilson of San Rafael, Judy and Dean Johnson of Incline, Kathy and Doug Anderson of Palo Alto and Joanne and Jack Rome of Incline.

* * *

Peggy and Don Gilfillan entertained as their weekend guests Gabriel Wasserman of San Rafael and Capt. Kevin Donovan of Hamilton Air Force Base.

Capt. Donovan was a lawyer with the Air Force and is retiring after duty in Vietnam to enter private practice. He served in the executive office in Washington, D.C. when Robert Kennedy was Attorney General of the United States, from 1961 to 1963. Don and Kevin were classmates at Georgetown Law School. Capt. Donovan was highly decorated fr his service.

* * *

Barbara Oredsen and son, Eric, of Reno were houseguests of Betty and Carl Ulhorn at their Incline Village home over Labor Day weekend. Barbara attended the Ball with the Ulhorns.

* * *

Congratulations to Lynn and Dave Ashton of Incline Village who celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary on August 31. Lyunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Boreham of Palo Alto, Dave's father and his wife, Dave and Marguerite Ashton of Kings Beach and Lynn's sister and her husband, Joyce and Howard Farrell enjoyed a champagne party with them. Lynn and Dave and Joyce and Howard followed their cocktail party by attending the Ball.

* * *

Pat and Irv Deal of Dallas were weekend guests of Darlyne and Jack Knorpp at Incline Village. They were also celebrants at the Ball.

Virginia Hill and Lee Cunningham of Incline Village attended the wedding of longtime friend of Virginia's in San Francisco last weekend. Returning home with them was Virginia's son, Butch, who had been visiting with the Jack Sommers. Jack is managing the Travelodge on the Wharf in San Francisco and is well known in Reno where he was with the Holiday Hotel and also at Incline where he was a manager at the Lake Tahoe Hotel.

Butch is a frequent visitor to the Sommers as Jack and the late Oran Hill were longtime friends.

* * *

Visiting Virginia Hill and son, Butch, over the weekend was daughter and sister, Marlie Hill Tessler of Reno and her husband, Bill. Another guest was Toni and Michael Rossi of San Jose. Toni is the daughter of Harry Amsel of Morro Bay. Toni and Marlie attended Marymount at Santa Barbara together and reminist over school days at the convent and the new convent changes and regulations.

* * *

Lee Cunningham of Incline Village hosted a pre-ball cocktail party Saturday evening. Among those attending were Virginia Hill, Pat and Tom Koskey, Beth and Dave Chamberlin, Janet and Chap Wentworth, Layne Sharmon, Jane and Russ Graf, Bernie and Bill Lake, Dr. and Mrs. W. Dale, Betty and Wick Wichman, Betty and Fred Facciolla, Bill Watson, Ed and Trudi Malley and daughter, Susan, Tom Kavanaugh, John Ganti, Charles Watson, Dr. and Mrs. L. Lombardi, and Gem and Clarence Herda.

The party was also a farewell to the Koskeys who have sold their home and leave shortly for Arizona.

* * *

Thelma and Everitt Martindale of Menlo Park have purchased the home of Pat and Tom Koskey at Incline Village. The Martindales were the Koskey's guests over Labor Day weekend in their soon-to-be new home. After attending the Ball which invitation the Martindales had to decline due to previous engagement, the Koskeys quietly returned to their soon-not-be-home and not awaken their guests. Confusing? Yes, they are all in making these moves.

* * *

Betty and Harold Dahlstrom of Anchorage, Alaska, are the newest homeowners at Incline Village. Welcome to the area.

* * *

Happy Birthday to Gina Neville of Incline Village and Reno who celebrated September 1 with husband, Richard, and daughter, Barbara.

* * *

Our deepest sympathy to Janet Thorn Wentworth on the tragic loss of her son in a motorcycle accident a week ago. Also to her husband, Chapman Wentworth, who shared the tragedy with her.

* * *

Esther and Chester Florey of San Jose were houseguests of Martha and Harry Barnard at Crystal Bay last weekend. The Floreys and Bernards are longtime friends from Pakistan.

* * *

Jean Murray is vacationing at her summer home at Tahoe Vista from Merced.

* * *

The WSCS met at the home of Sue Dyer at Tahoe City Wednesday evening to discuss plans for the bazaar to be held later this Fall. Date and place will be announced by Sue who is chairman of the affair.

* * *

Audrey Welch Adams of Kings Beach surprised husband, Bill, with a birthday party on the 31st, his natal day. Sharing honors with Bill was Bern May who observed her day August 30 along with Audrey's sister, Mary Lynn Welch.

Mary Lynn spent her vacation at Kings Beach with the Adams' and returned to her home in Roseville where she teaches school.

* * *

Max Springer and sons, Rick and John, of Incline Village and Ann and Clarence Lyons and son, Tom, of Reno, were antelope hunters last week. Lucky Ann got the antelope! Billie and Tom Lyons returned to Reno after spending several days with the Springers.

* * *

Linda and L. J. Robinson celebrated their second wedding anniversary September 3 with his mother and husband, Gwen and Art Wood, at the Harrah's show. Gwen and Art celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary on August 11.

Linda and Mike Robinson and daughter, Sereena, of Fresno are weekend guests at the Wood home from Fresno.

* * *

Harold Murphy of the North Shore Club advises four golf tournaments in the next few weeks; the 11th annual National tournament of the Leftie-Rightie, starting September 5; Northern California Dental Association; Northern California Men's Wearing Apparel Association; and the Doug Pledger Tournament.

Kings Beach Baptists In Services

The recently formed First Baptist Church of Kings Beach is holding regular services under the leadership of its resident pastor, Rev. Leonard B. Sigle. Mr. Sigle and his wife have established their home at the Incline Village.

The pastor is well known for his long ministry in Oregon, Washington, Northern California and Nevada. Since 1930, Rev. Sigle has served as pastor and in such denominational positions as editor, evangelist and educator.

Churches served include the First Baptist Church of Klamath Falls, Oregon; the First Baptist Church of Longview, Washington; and the Baptist Temple of Modesto, California. He founded and edited the "Pacific Caost Baptist" of Portland, Oregon. He also served as president of the Pacific Coast Baptist Bible Institute of Portland Oregon.

Since 1948, Rev. Sigle has served the Southern Baptist General Convention of California as superintendent of missions and has played an important part in expanding the convention from about 250 churches to over 1000.

The Kings Beach pastor has lived and served in Reno for over ten years, prior to moving to the Lake Tahoe area.

The place of meeting beginning September 15 will be 444 Deer Street, Kings Beach. Presently the pastor reports that the services will be held in the home of the Gene Wright family, at 8199 Dolly Varden. Everyone is invited to attend the worship services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. every Sunday. Sunday School and Training Union auxilliaries are also in operation.

Carson Hospital Opening Slated

CARSON CITY — Originally scheduled to open with a month, the new Carson-Tahoe Hospital will hopefully begin operations Oct. 15, according to Dr. Richard Grundy, chief of staff.

The original plan to open on a piecemeal basis has been scrapped as impractical, because construction activity going on now would present a hazard to patients and equipment.

Arrest 3, Confiscate Drugs In Dawn Raid At Crystal Bay

CRYSTAL BAY — A "sizeable" amount of opium, marijuana, and "possible other drugs" were confiscated here Sunday in an early morning raid by Washoe County Sheriff's officers from the Incline Village substation.

Arrested in the raid were Berry Allen Gold, 21, of Petaluma; Penelope Nicholson, 19, of Chico; and Arron Richard Thomas, 26, of Palo, Colo. Gold is reported to be the son of a physician.

The raid was conducted on a warrant issued by Judge William Beemer. Arrest was made on the evidence gathered and original bail was set at $6,000 each.

The trio was surprised in a rented house at 500 Wassou Road, Crystal Bay. The raid was a result of months-long investigation and surveillance headed by deputy Ron Garner of Washoe County.

Garner said the surveillance and eventual arrests were facilitated by "excellent cooperation of several bay area police department and the Placer County Sheriff's Department.

Arresting officers were Garner, Sgt. Howard, and deputies Carter, Larrabee, and Hane.

Release of information on the amount of drugs confiscated, and the names of possible other drugs besides opium and marijuana, is pending a laboratory analysis which will be completed later this week.

Venture-21 Regatta Set For Lake Tahoe

The first annual Tahoe Invitational Venture 21 Regatta will be held on Lake Tahoe September 14 and 15, featuring as many as 100 of the 21-foot retractable-keel sloops. The main sailing area will be Crystal Bay.

Two races are scheduled for Saturday and one on Sunday. There will be two divisions in each race, one for all gear and one for standard sails.

Participants will enjoy a barbecue Saturday night at the River Ranch and a no-host trophy-presentation party at the same place Sunday.

Plan Parade For Auburn District Fair

The auburn Fair Boosters Association will again sponsor an annual Auburn District Fair parade, it was announced this week by Ralph Dasher, chairman.

Fair dates are September 13-15, with the parade scheduled for noon on the final day.

Trophies will be awarded for the best bands, majorettes, pony entries, floats (nine trophies to be awarded), nine equestrian classifications, costumes, marching units, drill teams, horse-drawn vehicles, horseless carriages, and decorated cars.

Dasher said entry forms have already been mailed to participants in past years, but said newcomers will be welcomed.

Forms may be picked up at the fair office, or on application to Dasher at Box 1031, Auburn 95603.

Dasher noted that parade participants will be invited to take part in a free drawing for $300 in cash or a vacation for two in Disneyland.

Blind Luck

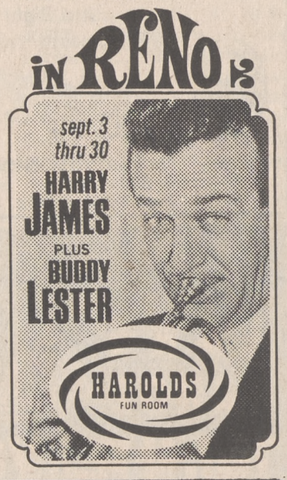
Local friends of Robert Bowers Hidden Valley resident, are extending congratulations on the deftly executed hole-in-one August 24 at the Hidden Valley's golf course No. 5 hole.

A three iron was the magic wand to conquer one of the longest par-three golf holes in Nevada. The pro, Eddie Jones, believes this is only the third time the feat has been recorded on the approximately 200 yarder. Ken Arvidson, Don Zunini and Joe Libke were witness to the rare event.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowers frequently visit here, where they attended schools and lived with their families.

Camels To Race

VIRGINIA CITY — The annual National Camel and Ostrich Races will be held here Sept. 6-8 this year. There is no charge to spectators, according to the Virginia City Camel Race Association.



Alaska Poor Job Market

Going to Alaska for job hunting? Forget it!

This, in effect, is the word received from Alaska by Peter Weinberger, director of the California Department of Employment.

Alaska State Labor Commissioner Thomas J. Moore asked that job seekers from California be cautioned against going to Alaska unless work is definitely assured in advance.

There is already an adequate skilled labor force in Alaska to meet the demands of industry unions, including an abundance of workers awaiting dispatch to construction jobs.

Alaska is now experiencing a heavy influx of college students and unskilled workers seeking summer employment. Resident workers in Alaska are being given preference over those seeking summertime employment.

Boats Collide On Lake Tahoe; One Known Dead, Seven Saved

A collision between two power boats 300 feet off the Tahoe City Pier Monday night at about 8:30 has resulted in at least one person drowning and seven being rescued by a passing vessel and the Coast Guard.

Raymond Ramsey, chief boatswains mate of the Lake Tahoe substation of the U. S. Coast Guard, said one of the boats, the Comet, was registered to and operated by Jordan Carlton of Piedmont. He and six passengers were pulled from the water, six of the group by the coast guard and one by another boat.

The second boat remains unidentified at press time. One body and some floating debris were found, but it had not been determined if other persons were found, but it had not been determined if other persons were aboar the missing boat. Both vessels sank in about 42 feet of water after colliding.

Bulletin

BULLETIN — At press time the boat-crash victim had been identified as Robert Gebhart, Jr., of the well known contracting firm in Tahoe City and Truckee. It has not been determined anyone else was in the boat with Gebhart.

Do You Own A Sports Car?

LOS ANGELES — Do you own a sports car?

Watch out, for that car might have illegal lights.

Most of the lights considered illegal in California appear on sports cars, according to the National Automobile Club, but not as part of the original equipment.

Did you purchase your driving or fog lamps through the mail? If so, remember that mail purchases account for most of the illegal lights. Some, however, come with used cars or cars formerly registered in another state.

Which lights violate California law? Take the lights designed for racing, as examples. These prove illegal because they have a higher light output than allowed on passenger cars traveling California roads.

Are You Planning To Take Fido Overseas This Year? . . .

Pet owners are discovering that air travel is a quick, pleasant and economical means of transportation not only for themselves but for their dogs as well.

A Boston family moving to Houston, for example, can fly their dog with them for about $8; an Atlantan can take his pet on a trip to Chicago for about $6, according to rates listed in Eastern Airlines "Air Travel Guide for Dogs and Cats," prepared in cooperation with the Gaines Dog Research Center.

When planning to transport a dog by air, check with the airline to determine individual regulations and health certificate requirements. Be sure to make inquiries and reservations well in advance of the desired date as each flight carries a limited number of animals.

Some airlines, both domestic and foreign, permit dogs to accompany their owner in the passenger cabin provided the animal is small enough to be confined in a container fitting in the space between seats.

Back To School Time: Drive More Carefully

SAN FRANCISCO — It's "back to school time" for thousands of California children. The National Automobile Club urges motorists to be especially watchful for youngsters on their way to and from school.

NAC reminds drivers that children often forget safety rules, and that the responsibility for preventing a tragic accident rests in the hands of adults. A child darting into the street without considering the consequences is understandable.

The action of an adult racing through a school zone is unforgivable.

The statewide motorists' organization asks drivers to follow these "life saving" safety rules:

— Exercise extreme caution during the hours of 7:30—9 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. Children are traveling to and from school in great numbers.

— Stay within the 25 mile-per-hour speed limit while in a school zone.

— Watch for youngsters who may be hidden from view. One could appear from behind a parked car at any time.

— Give children the right-of-way. Depend on your own good sense, not a small child's.

There's No Mystery About Over-Weight

There's no mystery about being overweight. It's a simple reflection of what and how much you eat.

Most of our food is used to provide us with energy and heat. If we take on more calories in food and drink than we put out in energy, what is not used is stored as fat.

If the calories we take in are fewer than those we expend, we draw on our supply of stored fat and lose weight.

The energy we put out varies from day to day, depending on the amount and the kind of work we do and on the surrounding temperature. The amount of food we need, therefore, also varies.

This balance between intake and output is automatically regulated for most people by what is called the appetite center, a group of cells in the hypothalamus, a small area near the base of the brain.

When this regulating mechanism works, the individual does not eat when he does not need the fuel; in other words, he is habitually a reasonable consumer of food.

Many factors can contribute to our ignoring our appetite center and developing damaging food habits.

Some people have over-eaten since childhood in response to the coaxing of solicitous mothers who urged food upon them. Others blunt the communications from the appetite center with alcohol.

And still others for emotional reasons ignore the message from the brain which tells them that they have had enough. When overweight ensues, as it inevitably will, the only practical way to cope with it is to retrain your eating habits through a day-to-day pattern of eating no more than the right amounts of a normal mixture of foods.

The key word here is mixture. The all-or-nothing character of most fad diets does you little lasting good and may do harm. This goes for the diet that is all liquid, the one which is limited to pineapple and lamb chops, to bananas and skim milk, the low protein diet, the high protein diet, or the favorite three years ago – the low carbohydrate or so-called "drinking man's diet."

If anyone could endure the monotony of any of these restructed diets indefinitely, he might indeed lose weight, although he might also develop constipation, secondary anemia, and other ailments.

But one the period of diet is over, he has not accomplished the most important factor in weight control; he has not learned good eating habits. He reverts to his old habits and gains back what he has lost, if not more.

Nor is the situation improved by the use of the so-called reducing drugs.

One of the most widely used of these appetite depressants is the "goof-ball," a stimulant to the central nervous system which is popular with some so-called "turned-on" people. It goes without saying that the use of it does not contribute to the development of good food habits, and it can lead to a drug addiction.

Another drug is a hormonal substance which is used in combination with a 500 calorie diet – which, without the drug, would undoubtedly result in as much weight loss.

Patients who are administered this drug are seen daily by their doctors, and this supervision probably contributes to the weight loss.

However, neither this nor any other "magic formula" trains the patient to acquire and sustain a sound pattern of eating.

If you want to eat in a way that will achieve a normal weight for you and hold it there, you must be persistent enough to follow a normal mixed diet of the proper caloric value week after week until the habit is firmly and finally imbedded.

Your doctor can tell you what the diet should be, but only you can make it work.

IRS Tests Are Coming Up

Mr. Joseph M. Cullen, Director of Internal Revenue for Northern California, announced today that the Annual Special Enrollment Examination for candidates seeking to practice as their clients' agents before the Internal Revenue Service will be held Sept. 26-27 of this year at the San Francisco District Office.

This examination presents an opportunity for those individuals who are neither Attorneys, Certified Public Accountants, nor former Internal Revenue Service employes to obtain enrollment status as a competent Agent qualified to represent clients before the Service.

The examination will consist of three parts, covering all aspects of income taxation, accounting procedures and ethics.

The application form and detailed information concerning the examination is available from the San Francisco District Office, Attention Miss F. Regan, Enrollment clerk, Room 5420,450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, Calif. 94102.

Telephone number 556-0344.

Vehicle-Train Crashes Costly

LOS ANGELES – Vehicle – train crashes kill more than 1,500 Americans every year.

And don't forget that an additional 5,000 Americans in such crashes suffer injuries that prove serious enough to warrant medical attention.

Stubborn drivers, according to the National Automobile Club, cause more than 40 per cent of such crashes.

So stubborn are they in making good time that they ignore protective devices put up for their own benefit, devices such as bells they can hear and red lights they can see. Some even drive right past watchmen who try to flag them down.

"But I couldn't stop in time," is the feeble excuse of many a driver who smashes into a crossing gate.

In reckless fashion during a recent year, drivers splintered 1,300 such gates in California and 1,000 in Pennsylvania.

Car Troubles Can Also Cause Job Troubles

"Car trouble" was the too-frequent excuse for an employe's repeated absences, the last instance revolving around a shady car dealer's retention of the employe's clunker when the employe's wife refused to sign on a newer-car purchase. Help from Legal Aid solved that one.

"Poor job performance" brought a reprimand to an employe.

But investigation revealed issuance of different and contradictory orders by several leadmen.

Repeated absenteeism for illness, but in conscientiously phoning in to report sick, the employe never mentioned the problem was a skin rash from contact with steel shavings and oil.

These cases, potential job tragedies, all had happy endings thanks to the services rendered by Rudy Calles, employment community worker in the Human Resources Development section of the California State Employment Service's San Jose office.

Among workers employed on a pilot project for the hard-core unemployed at a major south bay industrial plant, absenteeism was beginning to be a problem with some of the disadvantaged employed on the project.

Others were not performing well on the job.

Calles, with approval of the project supervisor, interviewed the workers on the job. He learned the real cause of their problems and was successful in helping the workers to solve the problems so they could continue in employment.

Hunters Should Keep In Top Physical Shape

Every male who has been in service, and almost everyone who has seen a war movie, remembers the drill sergeant's advice: "Take care of your gun and it will take care of you."

With Fall not too far distant, the Sacramento-Yolo-Sierra Heart Association reminds hunters to: "Take care of yourself before you take care of your gun." The gun can sit on the shelf for a year and come off it in bang-up condition. A few minutes of lubrication may be all it needs.

Not so the hunter who is out of shape. Sudden or unusual exercise may prove dangerous.

Getting into condition for the abnormal demands of the hunt is imperative if the hunter himself doesn't want to wind up among the now too-familiar seasonal statistics that report more hunters dying of heart attacks than of gunshot accidents.

The thrill of the hunt need not be linked with heart attacks for either the normally healthy man or even one who has a heart condition.

The first move should be to consult the family doctor.

He'll gladly explain why the hunter who had had no physical checkup in years or has followed no regular routine of exercise frequently is in more peril than the animal he stalks.

The doctor probably will specify just how far he can go, taking into consideration the terrain, the altitude, duration of the hunt and the patient's attitude.

There will be one condition: that the man with a heart condition does not hunt alone. There's not much point in going hunting if one doesn't come back.

Any hunter who gets winded should never hesitate to call a time out, even if his companions rib him as a softy.

If they insist on going ahead, he should let them go. Taking a load off of his feet may take an overload off his heart.

Need Help On Social Security? . . .

This is one of a series of questions and answers on Social Security. They are typical of questions answered everyday by Social Security Representatives throughout the county.

If you have a question about social security, send it to Arthur A. Johnson, Jr., District Manager, Social Security Administration, Reno, Nev. (89502.) Your answer will appear in a future column.

QUESTION: I was born in the Phillipines and arrived in the United States in 1948. When I applied for a social security card, I spelled my name the way my father had spelled it. Recently, I got my birth certificate and noted a difference in the spelling. What should I do about it?

ANSWER: If the difference in your name is minor, it probably won't make any difference as far as social security is concerned. It it is a major difference, you should get a form from the social security office for use in changing your name on our records. We will issue a corrected card right away if you'll send in the form with your original social security card.

QUESTION: I'm totally disabled but I'm only 42 years of age. Is there anything payable to me since I'm only 42?

ANSWER: Yes, it is possible. If you meet the earnings requirement for social security and have a medically determinable disability, you may qualify for social security payments. Age is not a basic factor for entitlement any longer.

QUESTION: I am a farm operator and report my earnings from the farm operation as self-emplyment income every year. My son works for the telephone company and has been advised to send in a post card to Baltimore to verify that his earnings have been reported correctly. As a self-employed person, may I do the same?

ANSWER: Yes. As a matter of fact we encourage everyone to do this at least once every three years. There is always a chance of not getting the earnings recorded properly and, of course, this could have an effect on the amount of social security payments.
